Property owners here will enjoy a neighborhood sense of place, exceptional mountain scenery, abundant clean air & water, shared open space landscape amenities, and a shared natural resource stewardship vision. All home sites, with designated building envelopes, offer big unobstructed mountain views, opportunity for energy-efficient home designs, reduced landscape maintenance, private outdoor living spaces, and convenient county road access. The development plan also provides for two private storage facilities so that all of the requisite mountain living toys can be stored securely and out of sight.
