Welcome to the “Jailhouse Condos” located in the heart of Uptown Butte, Montana where historic charm meets modern living. These brand-new condos are housed within the storied walls of a century old building that was Butte’s original City Hall. The upper floor has been transformed into two luxury residential condos. Whether you are an owner-occupant looking for a care-free lifestyle for either a primary or secondary residence, or an investor, these condos are a must-see. This redevelopment project is another example that showcases Butte’s proud historical heritage while embracing modern advancements and creating a vibrant and diverse urban environment with a rural Montana Community.

Built in 1900
