A historic icon of the Flathead Valley, the original Lakeside Red Schoolhouse sits proudly upon 108 feet of Flathead Lake shoreline. This beautifully restored lakefront home is reminiscent of an earlier era, with careful renovations conserving its classic charm. Originally built in 1906, the home was expanded in 1940 and throughout the 1960s, then fully remodeled in the 2000s with meticulous attention to every fine detail. This spacious residence encompasses 2,547 square feet with 10 ft ceilings and is complemented by an additional 570-square-foot enclosed summer porch with soaring vaulted ceilings and original windows. Its restored maple hardwood floors shine, as the open kitchen-to-living room layout flows into sweeping views of Flathead Lake and the Swan Mountain Range. Period elements include transom and French pane windows, while cozy gas fireplaces in the living and sitting rooms enhance its nostalgic ambiance. This unique property blends timeless history with lakefront luxury, a rare opportunity to own a piece of the past on the shores of Flathead Lake.
