Here is a great building lot right in the heart of Radersburg Montana! Actually, it's not just one lot - it's Block 12 lots 8-10. The views are beautiful, & the location is perfect for those recreational enthusiasts. Imagine waking up to the sweeping views of the Elkhorn Mountain Range listening to the Turkeys gobbling & watching the deer wander. Now let's talk about the recreational opportunities. Camping, biking, hunting & skiing are all around along with waterfalls, elk & wildlife galore. The Elkhorn Mountain range consists of roughly 300,000 acres rich in wildlife habitats that have been designated as a Wildlife Management Unit. The area is rich in valuable mineral deposits with historical mines scattered throughout. The Elkhorn ghost town is a historical glimpse into some of Montana's mining past. Townsend is only approximately 30 minutes away while Helena & Bozeman are only approximately an hour away.
