N/A, Dayton, MT

Welcome to "The Lake House at Dayton Point, Flathead Lake, MT". This iconic landmark property sits on a point with south and east facing shoreline offering captivating views of nearby Mission Mountains, Wild Horse Island, Cromwell Island and more. The Dayton Yacht harbor, known as the marina to accommodate the largest boats on the lake and public boat launch are less than 3 blocks away.

The Lake House on Dayton Point was custom built in 2007. This awe-inspiring log home has approximately 5,300 Sq. Ft. of eye catching interior space. Impressive wood craftsmanship, stone, tile and metal work throughout, leading to numerous decks, patios and covered balconies where Montana's natural beauty can easily be experienced.

The elegant main level master bedroom suite is well designed, offers beautiful views of the mountains and lake, soaking tub, walk in shower, double vanity sinks, plus bonus features of a large hot tub room and two direct exterior patio access points. The gourmet chef's kitchen has high class appliances with smooth design, tremendous storage and beautiful counter space for cooking and entertaining.

There are large bedrooms on the lower and upper levels, plus spacious bathrooms. A bunkroom and stunning atrium on the upper level leads to a cupola with spectacular views uniquely designed as a special place for different uses.

Included on the property is a fully finished Cottage with an attached two car garage. The one bedroom Cottage features a full bathroom and kitchen plus patio space.

Outside of the main home is a large stone fireplace adjacent to the entertaining game room area. Level grounds allow for ample outdoor play areas. The private dock is ready for your boat and water toys allowing for easy access to world class Flathead Lake recreation.

Many documents, video, 3D Matterport virtual tour and a special feature sheet available upon request.
