Finely Acres Minor Subdivision, De Borgia, MT

Welcome to a rare gem tucked in the embrace of nature. 10+ acres of pure serenity, surrounded on all sides by breathtaking mountain views that make you feel like you're being hugged by the earth itself. Have you ever been at a location that moves you so much, and then you try to explain the beauty to someone that has not seen it and no words do it justice? That is how majestic this property is, so hard to describe and even harder to forget. Everywhere you look there is a perfect view building site. This slice of paradise is equipped with a private well, septic system and power, making it ready to build your dream cabin, mountain retreat, or full-time residence. Located near the Hiawatha Trail and Lookout Pass, this is a world-class hunting, fishing, and outdoor adventure all around. Wildlife frequent the property, and a seasonal pond and waterfall adds to its charm. Small cabin on the property is hooked up to all utilities, would make great temporary or permanent housing.

Built in 1975
