Residential on 0.33 Acres

N/A, Coram, MT

Welcome to 550 Bass Ave in the charming little mountain town of Coram, Montana—where the air smells like pine, the skies stretch forever, and Glacier National Park is practically your neighbor! Tucked beneath big skies and whispering pines on .33 of an acre, this 4-bedroom (one is a loft bedroom), 2-bath beauty is bursting with space! Whether you™re relaxing after a day in the park or gathering with friends under the Montana stars, this home invites you to live large and love local. With plenty of room to stretch out, the inside is equal parts cozy cabin and roomy retreat. Warm wood touches, oversized windows, and easy flow make this the kind of place that feels right.

And did someone say bonus space? Oh yes—we™ve got that covered! The oversized shop is ready for your toys, tools, or wildest dreams. And upstairs? A finished space with endless potential! A finished space with endless potential—think guest suite, artist loft, Airbnb hideaway, or that yoga studio you™ve been manifesting. The middle fork of the Flathead River is calling for fishing, floating, swimming, maybe an evening float at the end of a day. Or escape for some hiking in Glacier National Park—truly, this is nature's playground. Whether you™re chasing adventures or seeking sunsets or hanging out in your backyard gazing up at the Northern Lights, this is where your Montana story begins.
