2 Bedroom, 1.00 Bathroom, 924 sqft

Residential on 1.80 Acres

N/A, Sula, MT

Nestled deep in the heart of the stunning Bitterroot National Forest, this authentic log home offers a rare combination of seclusion, functionality, and Montana charm. Set on a pristine piece of land near the East Fork of the Bitterroot River—famous for its world-class trout fishing—this property is a true outdoorsman’s dream. Outbuildings abound and elevate this property well beyond a typical rural home. A full game and meat processing facility—complete with a walk-in cooler—makes this an ideal setup for hunters and homesteaders alike. There's also a woodworking shop, a detached garage, and various utility outbuildings offering storage, workspace, and room to grow. The main residence is a classic log home, warm and inviting, with thoughtful updates and modern comforts while preserving that timeless mountain-lodge feel. Inside, you'll find a cozy wood-burning stove, rich timber beams. An old-fashioned outhouse tucked beneath the trees—charming and whimsical, yet the home itself has full indoor plumbing for all the modern conveniences. Whether you're casting flies on the East Fork, processing your harvest, or simply enjoying the peace and beauty of the Bitterroot Valley, this property is a one-of-a-kind opportunity to live off the land in comfort and style.
