Discover the detached double car garage is heated, an invaluable luxury during Montana winters. The home is situated on a double lot with a lovely, large yard. Located in Chester, Montana, youâ€™re just minutes away from some of the stateâ€™s best outdoor recreation. Spend sunny days boating or fishing at nearby Lake Elwell, or float the scenic Marias River. For hunters, the surrounding farmland offers exceptional opportunities for bird, goose, and deer hunting, with landowner permission. The affordability of the home makes it a great investment for a rental property, a seasonal getaway, or a cozy full-time residence. Amid the wheat fields and the rolling plains is the small community of Chester, Montana. This north-central town lies halfway between Havre and Shelby on Highway 2 with the picturesque Sweet Grass Hills as a backdrop. In 1910, the town was incorporated after being named for the first telegraph operatorâ€™s hometown in Pennsylvania. The small, close-knit community is mostly comprised of farmers and ranchers as the area is a fertile part of the Golden Triangle.
