200 Acres of Wilderness Retreat near Clinton, MT

Escape to your own slice of Montana's backcountry with this breathtaking 200-acre haven just 30 minutes from Missoula. Tucked away northwest of Clinton and accessible via the Clinton Frontage Road, this off-grid paradise offers ultimate privacy and boundless opportunity for outdoor adventure. Surrounded by state land on two sides and adjacent to Nature Conservancy holdings, the property features a marshy western area teeming with wildlife—deer, elk, moose, and more. Recent state logging has opened up fresh habitat, creating ideal conditions for both game and serenity. Enjoy native huckleberries in the summer, harvest your own timber for a rustic log cabin, and experience true solitude. With potential for year-round access via snow machines or road plowing, this property is perfect for seasonal stays or building your forever wilderness home. Whether you're a hunter, a nature enthusiast, or simply seeking an unplugged lifestyle, this land offers unmatched seclusion and inspiration.
