Secluded 5-Acre Forested Parcel Near Troy, MT – Power Nearby, Shed Onsite, Ag Exempt

Just 11 minutes from the charming town of Troy, this 5-acre property offers privacy, natural beauty, and easy access to outdoor recreation. Thickly forested and tucked away for peace and quiet, the land provides a great setting for a getaway cabin, small farmstead, or future home site—pending state and county review due to its current agricultural exemption.

Power runs along both sides of the property, and a small shed is already in place for storage or use during hunting season. The area is rich with wildlife and located close to prime hunting grounds, making it ideal for sportsmen and outdoor enthusiasts alike.

Whether you’re looking for a private retreat or an investment with potential, this forested parcel offers Montana living with convenience and natural charm.
