Great House with separate apartment. This could make a great investment property or simply use the other unit to supplement your income. Both the house and the apartment have a 1 car garage in the rear of the property under the rear 1 bedroom unit. This unit has a great open living area and a fantastic outdoor deck space. The front house has an amazing open floor plan in the upstairs living area with a 3 bedroom private space downstairs. This is a great place to be, just within walking distance to the Southgate Mall, as well as great walking and biking trails. You don't want to miss out on this property.
