Move on up to the Upper Westside with this spectacular cast-block Craftsman Bungalow - complete with historic charm and updated finishes! Incredible leaded glass transom windows create a focal point in the open living & dining room, along with the front bedroom. New flooring has just been installed - wood grained resilient plank in the front room and plush carpet in both bedrooms - creating a fresh palette for a new owner. Both the kitchen and bathroom have seen modern upgrades over the past few years with tile flooring, updated cabinetry, and stainless steel appliances. A dedicated laundry space off the backdoor is both convenient and functional. Situated on a double lot - a rare & highly coveted feature Uptown - the yard offers room to spread out and a perfect spot to host your 3rd of July BBQ with a front row seat to the firework display. A newly refinished south facing deck makes for the perfect spot to soak up the sun and relax. The single car garage was originally a residence and still retains some historic architectural details. This structure has strong potential to be put back into residential use by converting it to an ADU for added income or multi-generational living situations. Whether you're looking for a place to call your own or a lucrative investment property - 932 Zarelda is just waiting for its next chapter of history to be written!
