If watching your neighbors every move leaves you sighing for the country, take a look at this scenic value property! This offering is packaged for peace and quiet, with location at the top of the list. Open space is becoming ever more precious as Montana and the Bitterroot Valley keeps filling up with subdivisions and more people.

This 2,194 SQ FT craftsman bungalow style home features wood floors, niches and beams as well as custom tile floor entries, all on one level. Total remodel in 2025 with 1100' addition makes this a new home. Other added bonus makes it easy on the wallet to heat and cool with new low maintenance landscaping and concrete siding.

The relaxing drive up Middle Burnt Fork RD is chock full of conservation ranches both large and small, allowing open space view corridors and limiting future subdivision. The 3.91 AC has 2 sides with conserved ranchland property, ensuring the views of pasture, creek bottom habitat and barns in the distance remains the same. Agent is related to the seller.
