20 Acres Bordering National Forest “
Frenchtown, MT

Discover the perfect blend of privacy, recreation, and convenience with this 20-acre parcel just outside Missoula, in the quiet and welcoming community of Frenchtown. Tucked against Lolo National Forest, this property offers direct access to thousands of acres of public land, with Roman Creek Road leading you deep into the forest service grounds—an ideal home base for hunting, hiking, and year-round outdoor adventure.

The land features underground power, phone, and fiber optic already available along the road, giving you modern connectivity in a pristine mountain setting. Multiple buildable sites are spread across the property, offering flexibility for your dream layout—whether it’s a custom home, shop, or even an ADU. A recent professional thinning has opened up beautiful interior views, while maintaining a healthy, mature forest. The parcel’s gentle-to-moderate slopes and excellent access make it versatile for unique building designs that blend into the natural landscape.

All this, just minutes from Frenchtown’s schools and amenities and an easy drive to Missoula’s restaurants, shopping, and culture. If you’ve been searching for a Montana property that delivers seclusion, recreation, and convenience, this is a rare opportunity.
