The main floor includes two bedrooms and a full bath, while the fully finished basement hosts a large third bedroom with daylight windows that frame the Swan Mountain views right from bed. There's also a second bathroom and laundry hook-ups for added convenience.

Bonus Apartment with Stunning Views:

Above the main home is a newly finished upper-level apartment that offers privacy, functionality, and charm. This self-contained space includes a compact kitchen with an induction cooktop, a 3/4 bathroom, and elevated views of the valley and surrounding mountains. Designed for both comfort and efficiency, it features cozy Stiebel Eltron German wall heaters for winter warmth and a built-in attic fan system to help keep things cool in the summer.
