Shryock Gulch | +/- 1,002 Acres | Mineral
County, MT

Welcome to Shryock Gulch, a +/-1,002-acre mountain property just outside Superior, MT. With Johnson Creek flowing through a portion of the land and Forest Service bordering three sides, this rare holding blends scale, privacy, and big-sky scenery in one remarkable package.

Only minutes from Superior and just over an hour from Missoula and Missoula International Airport, the property also lies within easy reach of the Clark Fork River and under two hours from Coeur d'Alene, ID. Johnson Creek runs year-round through a section of the ranch, providing both a natural water source and excellent habitat for wildlife.

Public land access surrounds the property, with Forest Service on three sides giving owners direct entry to thousands of acres for extended hunting, hiking, and recreation. Multiple ridgelines and vantage points provide elevated build sites with expansive views, ideal for cabins or off-grid retreats. Mineral County supports abundant wildlife including elk, mule deer, whitetail deer, black bear, mountain lion, and upland birds. The ranch falls within a popular hunting district, offering sportsmen outstanding opportunities right out the back door.

Shryock Gulch delivers scale, water, and Forest Service adjacency in one of Western Montana’s most scenic valleys. Whether envisioned as a private retreat, recreational base, or long-term investment, this +/-1,002-acre tract is a rare opportunity to own wild country with direct public land access.
