Classic Mid-Century Brick Home in a Central Location – Situated just a block from Franklin Elementary, this 1948 brick home offers timeless character paired with thoughtful updates. The main level features a welcoming gas fireplace, a mix of original and engineered hardwood flooring, and built-in storage for added charm and functionality. The kitchen includes a cozy dining area, while the primary bedroom boasts classic built-in closets. An additional main-level room provides access to the upper floor, where two versatile bonus rooms can serve as bedrooms, creative spaces, or storage.

What was once the garage now functions as a convenient entryway that connects the main and lower levels—a flexible space ideal for a mudroom, game area, or future laundry room. Downstairs, you’ll find a complete mother-in-law suite with a kitchenette, tiled bathroom, bedroom, family room, and bonus space, plus the home’s laundry and utility areas. The fully fenced yards create inviting outdoor living, with the backyard offering a patio, fire pit, greenhouse, raised garden beds, and plenty of open space. Parking is easy with alley access, a shed, front driveway, and street options. Updated vinyl windows, electrical, and a newer furnace blend modern comfort with mid-century appeal.
