This home gives you the best of both worlds: historic character with meaningful updates where it counts. The original trim, transom windows, and clawfoot tub are not just decorative – they are reminders of the craftsmanship of another era. Meanwhile, the new flooring, newer roof, and updated insulation help reduce maintenance and energy costs. Roof and insulation were updated approximately 7 years ago. Cozy up to the pellet stove on those cold Montana evenings, while enjoying the look and feel of a bygone era.

Built in 1920
