Nestled at 1714 Chestnut St, this single-family home presents an attractive property in great condition, ready to welcome its new owners. This home exudes charm and character, promising a comfortable and stylish living experience. The kitchen, truly a focal point, beckons with its thoughtfully designed features, including a practical kitchen peninsula, perfect for casual dining or entertaining. Shaker cabinets provide ample storage, while the backsplash adds a touch of elegance and protects the walls from splashes and spills when cooking. Solid surface countertops offer a durable and stylish surface for meal preparation. The main level of this wonderful home additionally offers 2 bedrooms, and a full bath. Upstairs offers the master suite with a generous bedroom and wonderfully finished bathroom with a nice deep tub and beautifully tiled surround. Then head downstairs to the basement and the family room, 1/2 bath, and utility room. There are so many ways you could use the family room with incorporating an office there as well. Once we head outside you will see that the backyard is generously sized and is fully fenced for privacy and to keep those 4 legged family members safe. A detached 2 car garage is ready to welcome your vehicles to keep them safe and out of the weather. You will be kicking yourself if you let this fantastic home slip thru your fingers.
