Buck N' Dave's Eggs is a well-established local farm with a solid reputation specializing in pasture-raised eggs. This egg company is what all the locals are buzzing about when they purchase eggs. They supply eggs to both grocery stores and restaurants from Missoula to Hamilton. Demand is so high, they can't keep enough eggs on the shelf—creating an undeniable opportunity for expansion. The business is available as a turnkey operation. It currently employs four part-time workers, allowing it to run efficiently on its own, or it could be an opportunity for a couple people to easily manage it themselves and capitalize on financial potential. With the rising interest in nutritional awareness and food quality, this business continues to thrive in a community eager to support their local farmer.
