Land on 40.00 Acres

N/A, Bonner, MT

Forty acres of true Montana solitude—completely surrounded on all four sides by State land, offering the kind of seclusion few ever find. This rare property is a private haven at the heart of thousands upon thousands of contiguous public acres, where the only boundaries are the ones nature provides. The terrain is mostly level with a soft, rolling contour on one half, creating a beautiful blend of open meadow and timbered cover. Comprised of two twenty-acre parcels, this land remains nearly untouched, a pristine expanse that feels timeless. Access is by foot or horseback along old roadbeds for about three-quarters of a mile, or by snowmobile through fresh powder in the winter months. Off-grid and rich with solar potential, it's™s ideal for a self-sustaining homestead or an unparalleled hunting base camp. The views stretch wide and wild, the silence deep, and the stars endless—a place where stories are born and passed down for generations. Only an hour from Missoula, yet a world apart.
