6 Bedroom, 4.00 Bathroom, 6,420 sqft

Residential on 23.88 Acres

N/A, Clinton, MT

Just 15 minutes from downtown Missoula, this 6,420-square-foot Victorian-style home sits on 23.88 acres of fenced land, offering both space and versatility for agricultural use. The home is filled with timeless detail and quality craftsmanship, featuring six bedrooms and three and a half bathrooms. Four out of the six bedrooms have spacious walk-in closets. Inside, the remodeled kitchen includes hardwood floors, updated finishes, and plenty of room for cooking and gathering. There are two gas fireplaces and two wood-burning fireplaces spread throughout the home, adding warmth and comfort in every season. A screened-in porch—“with glass panels to swap in for winter”—creates a cozy space to enjoy the outdoors year-round.

Every window offers a view, from rolling pasture to mountain backdrop, giving the home a sense of openness and calm.

Attached is a 2-car garage with ample space, automatic garage doors and access to the home through the basement. Outside, the property includes a 1780+ square foot large barn with two tack rooms and pull-through doors and a round pen—“ideal for horses or livestock. The land is fully fenced and ready for agricultural use and includes a second well for irrigation. Located directly across the road from Clark Fork River Turah Fishing Access site, this property blends the best of rural living with close proximity to town—“space, privacy, and functionality just minutes from Missoula.
